• Use only the uppermost bleed screw(s) to bleed air from the caliper.

• DO NOT use the lower bleed screw(s). Doing so may introduce air into the system.

• If calipers are mounted horizontally they must be dismounted and rotated so the bleed screw(s) is above the bores.