

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Wilwood Renews Title Sponsorship with Redline Time Attack for 2017 Season

Camarillo, CA • February, 2017

Wilwood Disc Brakes has extended its title sponsorship of the Redline Time Attack Series through the 2017 season.

Redline Time Attack is a California-based motorsport series dedicated to providing the most exciting sports car and tuner-based road racing events.

As part of the sponsorship, Wilwood will be named title sponsor of the Redline Time Attack Series as well as various series-owned festivals including Subiefest, Nissfest, Hondafest and Mazfest. In addition, Wilwood will have exhibit space and provide product certificates to be raffled off at each festival.

"The Redline Time Attack Series has grown into a premier series focused on speed, and no matter how fast you go you'll always need high-quality brakes to slow you down," said Steve Cornelius, Director of Sales and Marketing for Wilwood Engineering. "The series is open to domestic and import vehicles alike and Wilwood's wide variety of brake components make for a great partnership."
